Beauty, Passion, and Heart

Audiences are moved to tears by "madly original" and "playful, mischievous, and innocent all at once" (The New Jersey Jazz Society Magazine) Juilliard-trained violinist- singer-songwriter Diane Perry. She combines folk with classical and jazz to create music with beauty, passion, and heart at its core. Her violin-playing is lauded for her spectacularly pure tone, and her voice for being rich with emotion.

Since 2007, Diane has lent her considerable technique to swing, folk, blues, and her own quirky brand of original music. "Plays the violin and sings with a soulfulness and brilliance that captivates" says David Amram , and Reggie Harris gushed "Simply magical! Combining the best of literature, music, and the dramatic arts."

She toured the US after her 2017 Official FARM showcase – A Southwest Tour in February and a Midwest Tour in May, and has a Semi-Formal Showcase at NERFA 2018.
